

April 24, 2007

JMLS Student Newsletter No. 10

Dean's Message

I hope it has been a great semester for you and that you are confident and prepared for exams. It is undoubtedly a time of great stress that only partly prepares you for the stress of the more concentrated bar exam or of the weekly or daily crises of law practice that demand everything of you. If you feel yourself hitting the wall or engaging in unproductive behavior because of the stress, or one of your friends is doing so, the State Bar of Georgia's Lawyer Assistance Program can help. Call 1-800-327-9631. All of the faculty and staff want to be helpful, but we are not all trained to be effective or knowledgeable about the problem that you or a friend may be facing. Don't let it get out of hand.

Final Dean's Awards for the semester to Beau Worthington and Michael Albino who also helped with our most recent Open House. If you are one of the worthy ones who have not stopped by to receive your award, please do so before memory fades.

Good luck with exams! Have a great summer! Let me know if I can be of any help to you.

Dean Lynn

*****

This week's announcements:

- John Marshall Law School Launches a Law Review

*****

JOHN MARSHALL LAW SCHOOL LAUNCHES A LAW REVIEW

At an organizational meeting held on April 18, selected John Marshall students met and chose the officers for the as yet unnamed student edited and operated law review. This law review will be published once per year and concentrate on one area of recent or ongoing legislative interest to Georgians. The law review staff is considering several options for initial treatment and invites suggestions from their fellow students.

The initial staff consists of Stephen Reba, Editor-in-Chief; Amanda Kee and Millard Ramsey, Managing Editors; Amelia Inman, Leah Brohm and Alexander Yusupov, Articles Editors; Rachel Scott, Victoria Brunner and Ryan Caesar, Research Editors; Tracee Benzo and Kristi Bankston, Legislative Editors; David Willingham and Dusty Hightower, Notes and Comments Editors. Jennifer Michael, Diona Potter, Jerry Thames, Paul Donahue, Paul Seig, Michael Albino and Adam Rust have chosen Senior Staff positions. The law review advisors (Professors D'Agostino and Jaffe) will soon announce the timing and process by which rising second year full-time and rising third year part-time students will be selected for law review staff positions.

*****