1L MINORITY CLERKSHIP PROGRAM

Since 1985 the Atlanta Bar Association has sponsored the Minority Clerkship Program with the assistance and cooperation of the law schools at Emory, Mercer, Georgia State, John Marshall and Georgia and with Atlanta law firms.

The goals of the Program are:

- To increase the number of minorities practicing in Atlanta Law firms by facilitating the placement of minorities in law firm clerkships.
- To supplement the minority students' clerkship experience with such support functions as skills development and other seminars and formal and informal networking sessions.
- To assist Atlanta law firms in their efforts to place minorities in clerkships and to increase the number of minority attorneys in practice in those and other law firms through the city and the state.
