Non-Discrimination Policy: Atlanta's John Marshall Law School does not discriminate on the basis of race, gender identity, gender expression, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, handicap or disability, or sexual orientation. The policy of the Association of American Law Schools, required of all AALS-accredited law schools, reinforces our long-standing practice. Accordingly, John Marshall Law School's placement services are expressly limited to employers willing to have their request for placement services, including posting notices, considered as an assurance of the employer's agreement to consider John Marshall's students without discrimination on the stated bases. In addition, the Law School requests that employers using our placement services also not discriminate on the basis of any other factor unrelated to an individual's capacity to perform lawyering tasks.
