

John Marshall Moot Court Archives (updated 10/7/14)

2013 – 2014 Academic Year

Objective

The Atlanta's John Marshall Law School ("AJMLS") Moot Court Board's primary objective is to provide students with an opportunity to promote and develop their oral and written advocacy skills. Student participation in Moot Court Competitions is a rewarding and valuable resource to cultivate the skills necessary to become an effective attorney.

Membership

All full-time and part-time students enrolled at AJMLS with a cumulative GPA of 2.5 are eligible for admission to Moot Court. A student may receive an invitation to the organization by successfully competing through the 1L competition or the JMLS Open, which is the intra-school competition held before the start of the Fall semester.
