PILS Auction

An event supporting the Renata Turner Award

March 11th | 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. | Atlanta Tech Village

The Atlanta's John Marshall Law School (AJMLS) Public Interest Law Society (PILS) will host its annual "PILS Auction." Established in 2010, the annual auction—PILS primary fundraising event—raises funds to support the Renata Turner Award for Public Interest Law and recognizes students who have made an extraordinary contribution to our community through public interest work and who have demonstrated an interest to continue that commitment. After a brief hiatus, the beloved event is back and expected to welcome all facets of the AJMLS community – students, faculty, staff, alumni, and fans.

The Renata Turner Award is intended to defray costs associated with performing unpaid public interest work in the legal field during the 2022 summer semester.

A non-profit, student-run organization, PILS encourages students to work for non-profit legal organizations or government agencies. Through this auction, PILS hopes to increase available aid to enable more students the opportunities to work in public service.

Alumni and friends are invited to attend. The event will feature live and silent auctions; food, cocktails, and live entertainment; and the opportunity to mingle with AJMLS faculty, staff, and students; and learn more about PILS's important work. Tickets are available for $10 per person and can be purchased online (link forthcoming).

If you are interested in supporting the auction by donating goods or services, such as gift cards, novelty items, apparel, accommodations, experiential opportunities, weekends away or event tickets, or if you have questions about the event, please contact me.

We hope to see you as we celebrate together with our members, sponsors, and friends.

Sincerely,

AJ Doucett,
Director of Alumni Relations
