2022 PILS Auction

WELCOME

On behalf of the Public Interest Law Society of Atlanta's John Marshall Law School, welcome to our 4th Annual Silent and Live Auction. All proceeds from auction items benefit the Renata Turner Award, a scholarship award that encourages and enables students to perform unpaid public interest legal work. Judge Renata Turner has dedicated her life to serving the community through public interest work and this award has been named in her honor.

Judge Turner and a dedicated group of students launched the first PILS student organization in 2010 and she served as the faculty advisor of PILS from 2010 until she was appointed to Fulton County's Juvenile Court in 2015 where she serves as an Associate Judge.

It is our sincere hope that you enjoy your time this evening with faculty, students, alumni, and friends. We appreciate you for your commitment and dedication to AJMLS and a special thank you to all of our sponsors for making this event possible!

Have a wonderful time, and let the bidding begin!
Sincerely,

Carlton Lewis
President, the Public Interest Law Society (PILS)
Atlanta's John Marshall Law School

BY REGISTERING TO BID, YOU AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING AUCTION RULES:

PAYMENT AND PICK-UP

- At the close of the Silent Auction and/or after the Live Auction, if you have the winning bid, please obtain the bid sheet from in front of the item display, or if it is a live auction item from the Auctioneer, the host will provide you with a live auction receipt. Take that receipt to one of the cashier's tables.
- Payment may be made by check or digitally through our Merchant Services Portal.
- All items must be paid for by the end of the evening.
- If payment is not received by the end of the event the next highest bidder will be declared the winner and notified.
- If for whatever reason, there is a problem with pick-up or payment, the Auction official, at their discretion, may offer the lot(s) to the next highest bidder or dispose of the lot(s) by any other means.

GENERAL RULES AND TERMS OF SALE

- All bidders must be 18 years of age or above.
- A bid is construed as a legal agreement to purchase the listed item(s) at the amount indicated by your bid. The auction bid sheets will serve as prima facie evidence of the terms of the sale.
- Please do not remove or touch auction bid sheets. If you need more information on an item, please seek the assistance of auction staff or volunteers.
- PILS reserves the right to withdraw any of the items listed for sale at any time, for any reason.
- Auction officials reserve the right to ask anyone and their guests to leave the Auction at any time and for any reason.

- All sales are final. There will be no exchanges or refunds. The Public Interest Law Society, Atlanta's John Marshall Law School, and Auction sponsors do not make any expressed or implied warranties or guarantees on auction items regarding quality or value.
- The value listed is an estimate of the appraised value. Items have not been appraised unless otherwise noted.
- All items and services are subject to the terms and conditions specified by the donors. All terms, restrictions and conditions may not be listed on auction information, and additional terms, restrictions, and conditions may apply to any item.
- All sales are final. Though PILS and Atlanta's John Marshall Law School have attempted to describe and catalog all items correctly, all items are offered and sold "AS IS" and "WITH ALL FAULTS", without warranties, express or implied, including warranties of title and use.
- PILS and all other entities and persons involved in this Auction, neither warrant nor represent and in no event shall be responsible for, the correctness of descriptions, genuineness, authorship, provenance, or condition of the items. No statement made in this catalog or made orally at the auction or elsewhere shall be deemed such a warranty for tax purposes or market value. The John Marshall Law School Foundation is a 501 (c)(3) not-for-profit and any contribution to it, including the amount you pay for an auction item in excess of its fair market value, may be tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.

SILENT AUCTION

- The minimum bid and minimum bid increment are written on the bid sheet for each item. Please write your name and bid clearly.
- To be valid, bids must be legible and comply with the minimum bid and bid increment listed on the item display sheet. All new bids must be higher than the previous bid by at least the minimum bid increment.

- The Silent Auction will close at 8:00 PM, at which time the highest bid on each bid sheet will be declared the winner, and an Auction official will highlight the top bid name and amount. You can see if you are the successful purchaser by looking at a copy of the silent auction bid sheet for all items that you bid on.
- In the event of a dispute, PILS shall act as the final authority in determining the winning bid.
- In order to protect the integrity of bidders, do not scratch out bids. Bids may only be voided by an auction volunteer or official. Please seek assistance immediately if you find an invalid bid or make a mistake during bidding.

LIVE AUCTION

- Live Auction bidding will begin at 8:00 PM and ends when announced by the Auctioneer.
- The Auctioneer will conduct bidding for the live auction.
- Bids must be recognized and accepted by the Auctioneer to be valid.
