

DEADLINES for AVAILABLE Spring 2026 SCHOLARSHIPS:

Sunday, December 14, 2025, at 5:00 p.m. EST

INSTRUCTIONS

- You must be currently enrolled at Atlanta's John Marshall Law School for the Spring 2026 semester and return to Atlanta's John Marshall Law School for the Spring 2026 semester to be eligible for scholarships. Funds for these scholarships will not be posted to recipients' accounts until the Spring 2026 semester and cannot transfer to another law school.
- Our process is online. Please allow focused time to complete applications, write and review required essays, request recommendations, and follow up with recommenders. All scholarship applications* will disable at 5:00 p.m. EST on Sunday, December 14, 2025. We will not consider late or incomplete applications. We will only consider applications that are submitted through our online process.
- Carefully review available scholarship opportunities and determine the scholarships for which you meet the criteria. Apply only for the scholarship(s) in which you meet all the listed criteria. If you do not meet all the requirements, you will not be considered.
- All scholarship applications will require a resume. Please review each application to view additional requested information. If you do not submit all required documents, you will not be considered.
- Most available scholarships require essays as part of the application process. We advise applicants to write all essays in a word processing software. Additional Letters of Recommendations must be in a PDF format.
- Please do not type your application or essay responses in all caps or all lowercase. Please use correct spelling and grammar.
- May I use the same letter of recommendation for multiple scholarship opportunities?
 - Yes, as long as the letter of recommendation is from the appropriate source.
- Should I ask my recommender to submit a letter to AJMLS?
 - No, as you upload answers to the questions required, also upload the letter of recommendation. Please make sure the recommender's letter is on letterhead for the organization represented.
- What happens after I submit a scholarship application? When will scholarship recipients be notified?
 - The application system will send you an automatic confirmation email with a copy of your application. Due to the volume of applications we receive, we cannot respond to individual requests for updates. Scholarship recipients will be notified by email in January.

Students who will not be returning to Atlanta's John Marshall Law School for the Spring 2026 semester should not apply for these scholarships. Scholarships will not be posted to student accounts until the Spring 2026 semester and cannot be transferred to another law school.
